NOTICE TO MEMBERS

The Secretary begs to inform the members of the Society that the membership is having a very satisfactory growth since the last issue of the Transactions. Without question the policy outlined there, which has since had the sanction of the annual meeting, is appealing both to the old members and to others interested in Biology and in the Microscope,—physicians and teachers.

A membership of 400 will enable the officers to publish regularly a Quarterly the size of the last issue (100 to 125 pages).

If each member will secure and recommend at least one new name, we can have a membership of 400 in a short time. One busy member has added 7 to the membership in the last month.

Will the members generally not show some of that interest in the Society that you rightly expect of your Secretary, and extend to the Society the benefit of your personal acquaintance and influence with people who might be, or become, interested.

NOTICE

The financial statements of the officers did not reach Minneapolis in time for audit and approval by the Society in its annual meeting. The Auditing Committee appointed to receive these reports has not found it possible to audit them in time for publication in the January number.

All the minutes of the meeting, therefore, together with the reports of the Treasurer and Custodian will appear in the April number.

The names of the newly elected officers appear on the preceding page.
